n. A vibrant afternoon festival and dance celebrating Tempe's Hispanic culture and community history

480-350-8979 www.tempe.gov/tardeada

- ▶ Entertainment Stage - Performances celebrating music and dance. Join in on the dance floor or sit back and watch!
- ▶ Museum Exhibit - Scrapbooks for History: Some people like to make family heritage albums or "scrapbooks" to share family history with relatives or friends. You might be surprised to learn that these types of albums can also make an important contribution to Tempe History. This exhibit explores ways of collecting family history and introduces the Museum's Family History Albums Project. See completed Hispanic Family History Albums and get ideas and suggestions for making your own album.
- ▶ Arts and Crafts - Colorful crafts celebrating the Hispanic heritage will be available for all ages.
- ▶ Traditional Foods - Enjoy a variety of delicious Mexican foods at family-friendly prices.
- ▶ Community Booths - Booths representing local Hispanic groups and general interest groups will be on hand with valuable information.
- ▶ El Baile - Join in the tradition of the Sunday afternoon dance.

Ride the bus FREE to the Tempe Tardeada!

Just clip the two one-way passes for use on any Valley Metro bus. Please use scissors and cut neatly along dotted lines.
